Notes to the Town of Beaux Arts Village Fee Schedule:

1. Applicants, property owners, or authorized agents are responsible for complying with ALL rules and regulations governing the desired application or activity, supplying any additional information or documentation as may be required for the desired application of activity, and paying the fees listed herein at the time of application or request, unless otherwise specified by the ordinance governing the desired activity.
2. In addition to the fees stated, the applicant, property owner or authorized agent shall reimburse the Town for any additional charges incurred by the Town for services related to the activity or permit, including but not limited to consultant charges for review / approval of submitted application.
3. The building permit fee pays for the cost of some inspections and permit-related activities. If the accumulated additional charges for the project exceed 75% of the building-permit fee paid at issuance, the excess will be deducted from the inspection deposit. If charges exceed these allowances, the permit holder will be billed for the excess charges.
4. The inspection deposit pays for any accumulated excess charges for inspections and similar work incurred against a permit. If the deposit collected is greater than the excess charges incurred, the remaining deposit will be refunded to the permit holder. If charges exceed these allowances, the permit holder will be billed for the excess charges. Permits for re-roofing and other small projects with a fair-market value of less than $10,000 that do not require a plan review are exempted from this deposit.
